

Questions on Cuba paper~~11~~ #7

1. What help, if any, are we to give anti-Castro elements within Cuba, particularly guerilla or underground elements? Will we give them supplies, arms, additional men or information? Facilitate an "interchange of personnel" with U. S. -based refugees?

2. P. 7 refers to []

[] Should some plans for such an endeavor be part of the recommendations?

3. A Cuban "Freedom Brigade"?

4. Is it intended that the Revolutionary Council be given belligerent status; formal recognition as a government in exile; or no further official recognition?

-- Do legal grounds exist for a further step?

-- Is this the right group of people in the right positions?

5. Should we apply the Trading with the Enemy Act?

6. What is meant by "a blacklist of Cuban commercial activities in Latin America"? How -- and by whom?

RECEIVED
E. O. 11652, SEC. 1.2(a), 1.2(b), AND 1.4
U. S. Archivist (NLK-77-1018)
BY TMH MAR. DATE 5/23/78

7. How complete a participation from other nations is necessary before we should establish a Caribbean Security force?
8. Will the availability of our arms and forces for internal security purposes be welcomed by popular movements plotting against unpopular regimes [—]
9. Should U. S. Troops be sent in in case of a revolt in Haiti or the Dominican Republic?
10. Should more extensive and expensive information activities to Cuba be undertaken --